Job Description

The CEO we're looking for has a strong track record in sales, growth, and profitability. You have a strategic and visionary leadership style, with the ability to inspire and motivate team members. Our corporate culture combines a passion for people, innovation, and commercial success. Location: Göteborg

We are looking for a leader who empowers others while giving a clear vision and direction.

Exceptional communication skills required, and the ability to build relationships at various levels in a global context.

International experience and willingness to travel internationally (up to 50% travelling).

The position requires solid leadership experience from biotech, medtech, pharma, or diagnostics – the Life Science Industry. You have a strong track record in sales management. Preferably, you do have an experience both from direct sales and distributor/partner sales. Your experience covers also R&D, Manufacturing, and Operations.

We offer an exciting and challenging opportunity to lead a prominent Life Science company in a rapidly growing part of the industry. You will have the chance to shape the company's future and make a real difference in the lives of patients worldwide.

If you are a passionate and experienced leader with a strong background, we encourage you to apply today. We look forward to hearing from you!
